

India Water Partnership Monthly Report for January, 2011

Planning Process for undertaking IWP Activities earmarked for 2011

In the January, 2011, planning for various activities to be undertaken during 2011 as per the Work Plan had been done. Format for the project proposals and guidelines were developed keeping in view the IWP Work Plan for 2011 and the same were circulated among the IWP partners, some of them had been already been identified as few of their activities undertaken during 2010 have been carried forward in 2011 too. Good proposals have been received which are under scrutiny.
